

INTERNET PHARMACY RELEASE

Please know that we have only your pet's best interest in mind. We want you to make an informed decision about where you choose to have a prescription filled.

Unlike local pharmacies where a level of trust exists to competently fill prescriptions, we do not have this same level of confidence in Internet based pharmacies. We have been informed that the manufacturers of veterinary drugs will not sell directly to Internet pharmacies. This means that the medications sold by these organizations usually have been diverted from normal distribution channels and any manufacturer's warranty is void.

If I choose to have a prescription filled by an Internet pharmacy instead of from Allatoona Animal Hospital, I understand that I assume all risk for these prescriptions. I will not hold Allatoona Animal Hospital responsible for any problems associated with the dispensing, instructions for use or costs associated with a prescription filled outside of this clinic. I will not hold Allatoona Animal Hospital responsible for any adverse reactions to medication that was not dispensed as prescribed.
